CHRISTIAN FICTION

In recent years, Christian fiction has increased dramatically, and new writers are entering the field every day. The Newton Free Library has a collection of over 1200 Christian Fiction books. Here are some authors you might not have read yet, and others who may be old favorites. To find other titles, do a subject search using the term Christian Fiction and/or Christian Fiction, American.

The books are arranged on the shelves in the Fiction Section on the second floor by the author’s last name. The book “call number” for each book is printed after the date. Please speak to a Reference Librarian if you need help in locating a particular book or author.
