FICTION WRITTEN BY IRISH AUTHORS

Fiction offers a crucial window into the lives of others, promoting empathy and understanding in a way that travelling somewhere rarely does. Book publishers, in offering books from other countries, present readers with greater exposure to the world of people living in other countries.

The fiction collection at the Newton Free Library includes hundreds of titles that were originally written by foreign authors and in languages ranging from Arabic to Yiddish.

The following novels written by Irish authors are available at the Newton Free Library. The Newton Free Library, as well as the Minuteman Library Network, has many other novels written by Irish authors. Ask a librarian, if you need help in locating a title.
